Mission Statement

The mission of the North Carolina Extension and Community Association Inc. is:

To Strengthen Families and Communities through

- Leadership Development
- Community Action
- Educational support through research-based education from North Carolina State University and North Carolina A&T State University

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

As we begin a new year 2018, let us all start by learning new things and ways as we have our educational programs and hands on learning times. Remember to Eat Local Eat Healthy and do reports about what you are doing to carry this out. Eating in local places that use local foods is so important. Share pictures you take at farmers markets, roadside stands and your own garden. Report how you are doing your garden and where.

We also have the Boys and Girls Home at Lake Waccamaw that we help support. We have an additional list, which is in your yearbook of their needs. These cover general needs as well as baby needs and the bedroom donation list. Let us not forget these children. This has been and is an ongoing project.

With the hurricanes we have had this year, we don't want to forget the "Water Around the World" project. We can give to this project any time. NVON is sending filters to Puerto Rico as I write this.

We are back on schedule to have our State Meeting on October 29-31at the Ramada Inn in Nags Head. I know this is a long way for some, but start saving and planning to attend now. The Northeast District is hosting this meeting, so let's show them our support and be there. Thanks to all for attending the State/NVON last year in Raleigh and to those who worked so hard to make it a success.

Please remember to record your volunteer hours as they help in so many ways. What would our state be without all we do by volunteering? You may not think what you do is that important, but you never know what help and joy you bring to others.

Thank you for letting me be your president for last year and this. I am enjoying every minute of it. It is great to meet with you and hear and see what you are doing across this wonderful state. If I can be of any help to you please feel free to call me.

Judy Blythe
2017-2018 President

Pennies For Friendship

Pennies for Friendship provides a way for each individual member of societies to take an active part in the work of ACWW. By contributing to Pennies for Friendship, each member promotes world friendship, understanding and goodwill. "Pennies for Friendship" is a major source of the income to carry out the work of ACWW. NCECA urges members to participate in this activity

This voluntary fund is the lifeblood of ACWW. Within ACWW nothing functions without these Pennies – ACWW projects administration, United Nations links, Officers' Conferences, and the Countrywoman Magazine, are all supported by Pennies for Friendship.

ACWW depends totally on our generosity to enable the continuation of vital work on behalf of women striving to improve the quality of family life in rural areas, and is grateful for all donations given in Friendship and support of the work we are all doing together:
ACWW works with women worldwide!

In addition to the collection taken at our State Meeting, Clubs, Counties and District ECA groups can collect at each of their meetings. Fund-raising events can be held on ACWW Day, April 29 of each year.

Give Generously – Every Penny Counts!

2016-18 NVON Project in Common

Our Project in Common guidelines state that the project should rotate between international, national and membership. Water Around the World, an international effort will be completed this year.

The 2016-18 Project in Common, *Eat Local, Eat Healthy will emphasize the local foods movement. Our food now travels an average of 1500 miles before ending up on our plates. This globalization of our food supply has serious consequences for the environment, our health, our communities and our taste buds. The local foods movement is a collaborative effort to build more locally based, self-reliant food economies. In 2007, locavore was the American Oxford Dictionary Word of the Year. Do you know what it means? A locavore eats food that is produced within 100 miles of their home, whether from farmer's markets, community supported agriculture or grow your own.

At the turn of the 20th century, most of the food that we ate came from within 50 miles of where we were eating it. But as the American demographic shifted from rural to urban, many local food sources disappeared. Aided by improvements in distribution from interstate highways and overnight shipping, we started looking farther and farther away from home for our food. Or, rather, we weren't looking at all. We'd walk into supermarkets or restaurants and choose from the bounty of products that the big trucks had dumped at our doorstep. Consumer choices about food spending and diet are likely to be influenced by the accessibility and affordability of food retailers--travel time to shopping, availability of healthy foods, and food prices. The return of locally sourced produce is a recent phenomenon.

Eat Local, Eat Healthy encourages each member state to work closely with the local foods movement at your respective Extension Service. There are many ways to participate:

- local farmers markets
- food coops
- community supported agriculture
- school gardens
- or grow your own.

Circles of 10 is a volunteer opportunity to engage individuals/consumers increasing local food action in your county by simply starting conversation. And, building demand for local foods is a proactive way to improve:

- your health.
- your community.
- your environment.
- and your local economy.

Reporting will be done via a simple form that captures information in each aspect of this project . . .the local foods, the Circles of 10 and grow your own. Many of you will only visit and purchase from the local food venues. Others will volunteer for the movement; still others will help start one in your community.

We will be publishing an annual report back to the membership and would like to include your pictures and testimonials of how you've touched or changed lives of yourself or others around you.

We will publish an annual report back to the membership that captures your activities. Please include pictures, brochures, testimonials, etc.
